CASE NO. 06-96M

DETENTION ORDER

Offense charged:

Sexual Abuse of a Minor

Date of Detention Hearing: March 30, 2006

The Court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to Title 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds that no condition or combination of conditions which the defendant can meet will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of any other person and the community. The Government was represented by Susan Dohrmann. The defendant was represented by Robert Gombiner.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

- (1) There is probable cause to believe the defendant committed an offense involving a minor. There is therefore a rebuttable presumption against the defendant's release based upon both dangerousness and flight risk, under Title 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e).
- (2) Nothing in this record satisfactorily rebuts the presumption against release for several reasons:
 - (a) Due to the nature of the instant offense involving a twelve year old, the defendant is viewed as a risk of danger to the community and minors in particular.
 - (b) The defendant has an extensive history of failing to appear and failing to comply with court orders and is homeless, therefore posing a risk of nonappearance.
 - (c) The defendant's long history of alcohol abuse has not been addressed despite enrollment in different treatment programs.
- (3) Based upon the foregoing information it appears that there is no condition or combination of conditions that would reasonably assure future Court appearances and/or the safety of other persons or the community.

It is therefore ORDERED:

- (1) The defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
- (2) The defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private

1 consultation with counsel;

- 2 (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for 3 the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which
4 the defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States
5 Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court
6 proceeding; and
- 7 (4) The clerk shall direct copies of this order to counsel for the United 8 States, to counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to 9 the United States Pretrial Services Officer.

10 DATED this 31st day of March, 2006.
